Tropical Storm Isaias - Update No. 2

Indian Creek Village Residents:

The Village continues to monitor Tropical Storm Isaias located approximately 900 miles SE of Miami, moving toward the SE coast of Florida, traveling about 20 mph. The storm has the potential to impact Miami-Dade County Friday (tomorrow) evening or Saturday morning. Expect 3-4 inches of rain throughout the weekend with higher amounts locally.

Miami-Dade County is now under a Tropical Storm WATCH.

Residents are urged to finalize storm preparations by tomorrow afternoon.

For more information regarding storm preparedness, see pages 6-7: Indian Creek Hurricane Readiness Guide
